

Perdue Brandon

History

Perdue Brandon has been in business for 48 years. Established in West Texas in 1970, founders Larry Brandon and Howard Perdue saw an opportunity to help historically under-served local governments in the Panhandle and West Texas in collecting delinquent receivables.

Perdue Brandon has operated as a Texas limited liability partnership since 1992.

Experience

With 12 regional offices, Perdue Brandon has more than 400 employees, including more than 50 attorneys, with 39 of these attorneys as partners with ownership.

Our clients receive comprehensive legal representation relating primarily to the collection of government receivables.

Perdue Brandon is grounded upon integrity and ethical conduct. Throughout the years, we have steadfastly refused to diminish our standards. Our clients are certainly the best references regarding our character and work product.

All Perdue Brandon employees are required to maintain a high level of confidentiality of information of data obtained from clients. Perdue Brandon, its partners, attorneys and staff abide by all applicable laws, professional rules and regulations.

Services

Our services include delinquent tax collections, fine and fee collections, appraisal district representation and property value study appeals and audits for school districts.

Our clients include counties, cities, school districts, appraisal districts, community colleges, hospital districts and all types of special districts.

Perdue Brandon also advises appraisal districts on property tax matters and represents them in litigation involving valuation, exemptions, special appraisal and other property tax issues.

Our school district clients entrust us to collect their delinquent taxes and to find innovative ways to maximize state school funding to them.
